

Jeep Safari to Gaviota Ranch

- Visit the viewpoint at Bacunayagua Bridge, the highest in Cuba.
- Guided visit to animal breeding farms. Time off to ride on horseback and ox.
- Typical Cuban lunch
- Visit a country house
- Welcome cocktail
- Tour through Yumuri Valley with stay at Gaviota Ranch, including:
- Panoramic tour in the city of bridges (Matanzas). Visit Monserrate Viewpoint.
- Underground walk, watching gorgeous stalactites and stalagmites in Bellamar Cave, go down the cave and enjoy a 3D screening and welcome cocktail.
- Visit Saturn Cave, an ancient flooded cave with 20-meter depth, enjoy the option to practice snorkeling in a natural pool.
- Visit Maya Lagoon and practice snorkeling at the coral reef in the virgin area of Punta de Maya, characterized by the amazing beauty of its sea bottom.
- Attractive and exclusive jeep excursion to get in touch with nature.
- Pickup at the hotels de Havana according to the hours established for the excursion
- Return to the hotels de Havana.

REMARKS

- Children under 2 years of age go for free.
- The jeeps feature manual transmission.
- Exclusiveness supplement in CUC:
 - 1 pax: $60 CUC | 2 pax $40 CUC | 3 pax $20 CUC
- Supplement for professional chauffer: $40 CUC
- Those who want to drive are required to show their driving license.
- All-risk insurance is included.
- Customers shall pay the whole damage caused if they are proven to be under the effects of alcoholic drinks or psychotropic substances and/or the damage was intentionally caused or related to negligent actions.
- When there are more than 3 people, at least one customer per jeep should carry the driving license.
- The customers participating in these excursions are accompanied and assisted by specialized chauffer-guides.

